CENTERRA CAPITAL ANNOUNCES TEAM EXPANSION

Modesto, CA – Centerra Capital, Inc. announced today that Seana Day Hull, Donny Rocha, and Patrick Burda have joined the Centerra Capital team.

“The addition of Seana, Donny and Patrick to the Centerra Capital team is an exciting development in the ongoing and future success of the Company,” said Paul Draper, Founder and C.E.O. of Centerra Capital. “The wide-ranging experience and expertise that the three bring, together with our existing team of talented bankers, will be vital to the growth and success of the Company.”

Day-Hull, Director, brings 11 years of experience advising emerging growth companies in capital formation, international mergers & acquisitions, strategic advisory, and restructuring. She will focus on growth in business services, consumer, manufacturing, and technology (including AgTech) sectors. Day-Hull is a Turlock native and received her MBA from Daniels College of Business at the University of Denver and holds a BA in Political Science from the University of Colorado, Boulder

Rocha, Director, brings 15 years of experience in commercial banking and finance. He joins Centerra from Wells Fargo Commercial Banking with considerable experience across Agriculture and business services. He will be focused on development and growth within the Central Valley, primarily in the agricultural industry. Rocha holds a BS in Agricultural Business and Dairy Science from California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo.

Burda, Principal, brings 9 years of experience working as a commercial lender in community banking. He joins Centerra from Oak Valley Community Bank where he focused on commercial business development and real estate lending. He will also be a key contributor to Centerra’s business development and growth in the Central Valley. Burda holds a BA in Business Management from California State University, Stanislaus.

Seana remarked, “We are building a dynamic team of investment professionals. The volume of activity is picking up in our market and demand for top-notch advisory services, to address ever more complex business challenges, is an exciting opportunity for Centerra.”

Established in 1998, Centerra Capital delivers trusted, independent advisory services to corporate and real estate clients. With a strong record of achieving results, Centerra specializes in strategic advisory, capital formation, real estate investment and advisory services, and property management.
